Culture Review

- The Metric System in China: China converted to the metric system from the traditional system in 1957. Most Chinese now use the metric system.
- Six important Sports in China: The six most popular sports played in China: basketball, volleyball, soccer, badminton, table tennis and tennis.
- Chinese New Year: Also known as the Spring Festival, the New Year is a national holiday in China celebrated on the first day of the first month of the lunar calendar. The lunar new year is also celebrated in many other Asian countries, including Singapore, Korea, Vietnam, and Thailand.
- The Lunar Calendar: China was originally an agricultural country, so the lunar calendar was developed in ancient times as a way to track the seasons of the year and to determine the best dates for planting and harvesting crops.
- Dragon Boat Festival: The annual Dragon Boat Festival falls on the fifth day of the fifth lunar month. People eat rice dumplings (zongzi) and row dragon boats.
- The Chinese 12-Animal Zodiac: rat, ox, tiger, rabbit, dragon, snake, horse, goat, monkey, rooster, dog and pig.
