

'Twas the week after CHRISTMAS
A New Children's Musical

This is an amazing group of talented students!! I am excited to work with each of them over the next few months to put together a great show! Here is the cast list. The auditions were so great!

If your student's part is not in the script or looks different than what is posted, please have them wait to highlight their lines. I will have highlighters and be able to explain more at our first read-through on Thursday. Thank you for sharing your amazing humans with us!
